

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword	vii
Acknowledgements	xi
Preface 2002	xvii
PART I – BACKGROUND
Chapter 1 – Introduction	1
• Orienting Concepts, History, and Language
• Purpose
• Intended Audiences
• Canada's History of National Consultation on Guidelines
• Overview of the Document
Chapter 2 – Context of Occupational Therapy	9
• Orienting Principles
• Contextual Features
• Changing Health and Social Systems
• Changing Professional Knowledge
• Changing Demographics
• Changing Societal Values
PART II – OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY CONCEPTS AND PRACTICE
Chapter 3 – Core Concepts of Occupational Therapy	29
• Occupational Therapy Values and Beliefs
• Canadian Model of Occupational Performance
• Occupation
• Person
• Environment
• Occupational Performance
• Occupational Life Course: A Developmental Perspective
• Client-Centred Practice
Chapter 4 - Linking Concepts to a Process for Working with Clients	57
• An Occupational Performance Process
• Seven Stages in a Process of Practice
• Additional Features and Guidelines for the Process
• Application #1: Working with an Individual Client (Mr. Elliott)
• Application #2: Working with an Organizational Client (A Fish Filleting Plant)
• Reflective Questions

Chapter 5 – Linking Concepts to a Process for Organizing Occupational Therapy Services 95

- A Framework for Linking Clients, Services and Society
- Six Elements in Organizing Occupational Therapy Services
 - Element #1: Plan Services
 - Element #2: Market Services
 - Element #3: Manage Services
 - Element #4: Educate
 - Element #5: Access and Participate in Research
 - Element #6: Evaluate Services
- Reflective Questions

PART III – APPLICATION

Chapter 6 – Using New Guidelines 139

- Enhancing Quality and Accountability
- Forming Alliances
- Building Knowledge

Chapter 7 – Vignettes 151

- Vignette #1: Retirement Village
- Vignette #2: Adult with Mental Health Issues
- Vignette #3: Child in the Community
- Vignette #4: Religious Organization
- Vignette #5: Lawyer

Key Terms 179

Index 183

References 187

Additional Readings 203

TABLES and FIGURES

FIGURES

Figure 1	Canadian Model of Occupational Performance	32
Figure 2	Occupational Performance	47
Figure 3	Cumulative Experience Across An Occupational Life Course.....	48
Figure 4	Occupational Performance Process Model.....	61
Figure 5	Occupation: A Classification System for Theory.....	67
Figure 6	The Client, Service, Society Model	100
Figure 7	The Client, Service, Society Model: Illustrated for Working with an Individual Client	101

TABLES

Table A	World Distribution	xix
Table 1	Purpose of Enabling Occupation: An Occupational Therapy Perspective	4
Table 2	Context of Occupational Therapy.....	12
Table 3	Occupational Therapy Values & Beliefs	31
Table 4	Key Features of Occupation	34
Table 5	Purposes of Occupation.....	37
Table 6	Occupation as a Descriptor.....	40
Table 7	Ideas About Spirituality	43
Table 8	Performance Components of a Person	44
Table 9	Elements of an Environment	46
Table 10	Guiding Principles for Enabling Occupation in Client-Centred Practice	51
Table 11	Key Features of the Occupational Performance Process	59
Table 12	Seven Stages of the Occupational Performance Process	62
Table 13	Analysis of Occupational Performance Issues.....	70-71
Table 14	Service Descriptions Focused on Enabling Occupation	98
Table 15	Elements in Organizing and Delivering Effective Client-Centred Services.....	99
Table 16	Plan Services.....	103
Table 17	Examples of Targeted Service and Societal Outcomes.....	107
Table 18	Examples of Marketing in Occupational Therapy	111
Table 19	Three Levels of Evaluation.....	113
Table 20	The Interdependence of Outcomes and Processes, Effectiveness and Efficiency and Client, Service and Society Levels in Evaluation	115
Table 21	Examples of Management Responsibilities of Occupational Therapists at Client, Service and Society Levels	122
Table 22	Access and Participate in Research: Examples of Possible Occupational Therapy Actions at Each Level.....	127
Table 23	Analysis of Sample Service Constraints	129
Table 24	Ideas for Using New Guidelines	140