

Table of Contents

About the Authors	iii
Foreword	1
Introduction	3

Part I Learner-Centred Reflection on Spirituality

Module 1
Why am I interested in spirituality?	7
Exercise 1: A Spiritual Autobiography	8
Exercise 2: A Professional Autobiography	9
Module 2
What is the context for considering spirituality?	13
Exercise 3: Exploring Contexts Conducive to Centredness and Connectedness	14
Exercise 4: Exploring Different Shapes of Spirituality in a Secular Society	15
Exercise 5: Highlighting the Breadth of the Spiritual in Personal Situations	16
Exercise 6: Highlighting the Breadth of the Spiritual in Occupational Therapy Situations	17

Part II Attending to Spirituality when Enabling Occupation

Module 3
How is spirituality embedded in concepts of enabling occupation?	25
Exercise 7: Defining Spirituality when Enabling Occupation	26
Exercise 8: Linking Spirituality and Client-Centred Practice	29

Module 4
How is spirituality included when enabling occupation?	35
With Special Contributions by Nathan Chedore
Exercise 9: Recognizing and Facilitating Spirituality in Enabling Occupation	36
PART III
Organizing Services to Attend to Spirituality in Enabling Occupation
Module 5
How can services be organized to include spirituality?	45
Exercise 10: A Spirituality Checklist	46
Exercise 11: A Spirituality Challenge	49
Module 6
How do I know when I am considering spirituality?	53
Exercise 12: A Spirituality Focus Group	54
A Capstone Experience	57
General References and Bibliography	61
More About the Authors	64